Manhattan Trekpack 17" Black & Blue Heavy-Duty Top-Loading Backpack

Product Overview

Manhattan Trekpack - Heavy-Duty, Top-Loading, Four-Compartment, Woven Polyester Backpack for Most Laptop Computers Up To 17", Black & Blue

Specifications

Overview:

The "Go Everywhere" Backpack for Your Laptop, Tablet and More. Designed to be your "go everywhere - do anything" backpack, the Manhattan Trekpack is handsome and comfortable and can carry a surprising amount of cargo. The Trekpack is made from lightweight, water-resistant material that is reinforced for maximum durability, and features four main compartments for storing your gear. The top-loading main cargo compartment is spacious and features a padded computer sleeve for laptops up to 17", as well as a unique bottom access zipper for easy retrieval of items from the bottom of the bag. The secondary cargo compartment has a tablet pouch, pen holders, business card pocket, keychain loop and enough room for magazines, folders or other items.

The third cargo compartment is an easy-access media pocket with an opening for a headphone cord, and the fourth is a rear-facing compartment that offers quick and easy access to smaller-sized items. Plus, the Trekpack has two external pockets for water bottles, digital cameras or other quick-access items, as well as reinforced cargo tiedown buckles, anti-theft compression straps and more. The Manhattan Trekpack has a heavy-duty rubberized carrying handle, as well as weight-distributing shoulder and chest straps for maximum comfort. The shoulder cinch straps have thumb loop tabs for adjusting the Trekpack to your back, as well as quick-release loops to make it easier to remove...especially when carrying a heavy load.

Features:

- Spacious main compartment features padded inner sleeve for widescreen laptop computers up to 17"
- Made from heavy-duty, water-resistant material
- Adjustable shoulder straps and specially designed mesh padding for extra comfort
- Main cargo pocket features unique bottom access zipper
- Side-mounted pockets for carrying water bottles or other items
