Overview:

Dell Pro 11-14 EcoLoop Urban Sleeve - CV4425
The Dell Pro 11-14 EcoLoop Urban Sleeve is designed for professionals and students who need lightweight, durable protection for their laptops while on the move. Its sleek heather gray finish pairs with sustainable materials to offer both style and practicality in everyday use.

Description:

This eco-conscious laptop sleeve combines durability and convenience. Made from foam and 300D woven fabric, it is water-resistant and lightweight. The retractable handle and zippered pocket provide easy portability and secure storage for essentials, making it ideal for travel, commuting, or daily office use.

Features:

Compact and Lightweight Design
The sleeve is crafted to be both slim and protective, ensuring your laptop is easy to carry without adding bulk. Its lightweight construction makes it suitable for backpacks or carrying on its own.

Durable and Sustainable Materials
Constructed from high-quality foam and 300D woven fabric, the sleeve resists wear and tear. The fabric exterior adds an extra layer of protection while reflecting a commitment to environmentally friendly design.

Convenient Carrying Options
A retractable handle allows for effortless mobility, letting you carry your device comfortably during commutes or travel. The zippered pocket offers storage for chargers, cables, or other small accessories.

Water-Resistant Protection
The water-resistant material helps shield your laptop from spills or light rain, providing peace of mind whether you are traveling or working outdoors.

Stylish Heather Gray Finish
The neutral heather gray color complements any professional or casual look, making it a versatile accessory for students, business professionals, and travelers alike.
