Product Overview

Manhattan Universal Folding A/V Accessory Wall Mount - Plastic/Steel Wall Mount with Adjustable Support Arms for Audio/Video Components, Retail Box

Specifications

Overview:

When floor space is limited or adding furniture is impractical, this Universal Folding A/V Wall Mount attaches underneath or near wall-mounted flat-panel TVs to neatly organize and arrange multimedia components. Constructed of durable steel and plastic, the Universal Folding A/V Wall Mount saves space and safely holds a DVD or Blu-ray player or other AV components in a contemporary style. The Universal Folding A/V Wall Mount provides a professional, finished appearance without restricting airflow to sensitive equipment. Ideal for residential, office, classroom, conference room and other installations, the Manhattan Universal Folding A/V Wall Mount brings convenient access and modern design front and center.

Features:

- Securely holds one A/V accessory with housing heights of 24-65 mm
- Avoid accidental bumps or damage with its foldaway design
- Durable steel-and-plastic construction
