Agile DPI control with LED color indicator
A DPI clutch enables instant switching among four customizable sensitivity levels, giving you the right amount of speed for standard gaming sequences and ultimate precision when you need it, such as when sniping. A convenient LED color indicator lets you know the current sensitivity level at a glance.

Stylish ambidextrous design
Designed to perfectly fit both right- and left-handed gamers and accommodate any grip type, Cerberus Gaming Mouse provides comfortable gaming experiences with total control.

Improved rubber side grips
Cerberus Gaming Mouse features improved rubber side grips that stay cool and reduce slipping from sweat to keep you holding on during intense gaming action.
