Overview

Astrum KCX100 is a full-size 104 keys elegant, stylish, and compact modern keyboard and mouse combo, offering a perfect combination of wireless connectivity for a more proficient workflow. A whole new way to brighten up your desktop and workspace. The tiny reliable wireless plug-and-play USB Nano receiver with a 2.4Ghz signal delivers up to 10 meters of connectivity for both keyboard and mouse, plug the receiver into one of your computer USB ports to start using the desk set immediately.

Experience great typing comfort due to the low-profile design, adjustable angle, soft touch choco chiclet keys, and ergonomic composition, offering a smooth responsive typing that leaves you feeling refreshed whether you are at home or the office.

The noiseless 104 qwerty standard keys and 12 multimedia keys promote a disturbance-free zone at home or office so you can get your work done without irritating others with annoying typing sounds. The spill-resistant keys ensure you can always enjoy a drink of your choice while working away as the spill-resistant mechanism helps drain out accidental liquid spills, so you can have a glass or cup of your favorite beverage on your work desk without any anxiety.

Enjoy high point clicking with the 3-level of adjustable DPI (1600) optical mouse, user friendly and perfect for both left and right-handers. Helping you click and point smoothly for an efficient workflow or gaming session. Efficiently manage power and save on frequent battery replacement as the keyboard and mouse goes into sleep mode after a few minutes of inactivity, helping you save on energy and resources.

Multi-OS compatibility supporting Windows, Chrome OS, and Linux operating systems, ensures you get your work done no matter what computer you are working on.
