FAQ

What size headphones fit this case?

This case fits most over ear and on ear headphones along with cables and small accessories. Its dimensions of 22 x 19 x 6.5 cm provide ample interior space without excess bulk.

Can I use this case for cable organisation?

Yes. The interior mesh netting and elasticated band secure cables, earphones, and adapters, helping to reduce tangles and keep items organised.

Is this case suitable for travel?

The hard shell exterior and compact size make this case well suited for travel, protecting your gear in backpacks, luggage, or carry bags.

What material is the exterior made from?

The exterior is constructed from a rigid hard shell material designed to resist impacts and protect contents during transport.

Does the case come with any accessories?

The case includes internal organisation features such as mesh netting and an elastic band. No additional accessories are included.
