Vax Bo260001 Clot Black beltpack bag for DSLR/digital video camera

Product Overview

Vax Bo260001 Clot Black beltpack bag for DSLR/digital video camera, neoprene and EVA interior, with removable inner Velcro divider, with external pocket for battery/memory card.

Specifications

Overview:

The Clot is designed for instant access to your camera gear and for the comfort when worn on the front of your body. It's big enough to hold a range of DSLR cameras or camcorder systems and accessories. A top layer of neoprene and EVA interior provide extra protection to keep your equipment safe, and a removable Velcro divider allows a more personal organization of your equipment. Due to its perimetrical zipper the bag is foldable and can be folded and stored away.
