Description

The Sokany SK-24003 Percussion 4 in 1 Massage is a compact rechargeable massage device designed for convenient personal use. Its percussion massage action is supported by a maximum speed of 3200 rpm, providing a practical option for users looking to incorporate massage into their regular relaxation or post-exercise routine.

The device includes 4 massage heads, giving users different attachment options for their massage routine. Five power intensity levels allow the massage strength to be adjusted according to personal preference and the intended use.

Powered by a 1200mAh lithium battery, the Sokany SK-24003 is designed for cordless operation. The stated charging time is up to 2 hours, while the discharge time is up to 50 minutes. This makes the device suitable for portable use without requiring continuous connection to a power source during a massage session.

An intelligent chip and noise reduction radio are included as part of the product design. The rechargeable format, multiple massage heads and adjustable intensity make the SK-24003 suitable for home wellness, relaxation and post-exercise massage applications.
