Overview

The Advance is everything you need - well-padded laptop compartment, a range of slots and pockets, ergonomic and stashable shoulder strap, trolley handle pass-through - and nothing you don't. This smart, durable briefcase is the perfect laptop carry solution for long-distance travel or everyday use.

Description

The Everki Advance EKB407NCH17 combines robust protective features with a streamlined design built for the demands of modern professionals. The top-loading laptop compartment is deeply padded and designed to fit notebooks up to 17.3´´, offering both security and convenience when opening and closing the bag. The non-slip shoulder strap is ergonomically moulded and removable, giving you flexibility in how you carry the briefcase. Inside you'll find a high-contrast lining-which makes it much easier to locate cables, drives and accessories in low-light or transit environments. The accessory compartment with zippered closure, together with a front stash pocket, ensures your smaller items stay organised and within reach. A trolley handle pass-through strap lets you mount the bag atop wheeled luggage when travelling, reducing fatigue and improving mobility. Sustainability and longevity are also addressed with self-healing zippers.

Features

Highlighted features and benefits:

- Extra-padded laptop compartment - protects large notebooks up to 17.3´´ from bumps and everyday wear.
- Ergonomic non-slip shoulder pad with adjustable strap - improved comfort during extended carries.
- Trolley handle pass-through strap - convenient when stacking your briefcase on wheeled luggage.
- High-contrast interior lining - aids quick identification of items inside the bag, especially in dim or busy environments.
- Dedicated zippered accessory compartment and front stash pocket - organised storage for chargers, notebooks, cables and essentials.
- Self-healing zippers and durable construction - built for the demands of daily travel and long-term use.

Trolley handle pass-through
A bag is only as strong as its wearer, and for the weary traveler EVERKI designed the Advance with a trolley handle pass-through to help lighten the load. This strap is correctly sized to pass smoothly over luggage handles and allow you to stack your bags for increased mobility.

Ergonomic two-way adjustable shoulder strap
Travel can put an unnecessary burden on the traveler, especially with a full load. To make things easier, EVERKI outfitted the Advance with a comfortably padded non-slip, two-way adjustable shoulder strap with quick-adjust buckles that give you more freedom to make fine adjustments to your desired length.

High-contrast lining
With EVERKI, form and function are not mutually exclusive. In addition to a range of convenient pockets and slots that ensure contents stay in their designated places, the Advance features a high-contrast orange lining that fits in with the bag's overall theme and makes items easier to find under any circumstance.
