Specifications

Overview:

Weighing only 10 grams and measuring only 7.5mm thick, the ADATA C003 Ultra-Slim USB Flash Drive provides the most out of your portable experience. Available in strawberry red and sparkling lavender blue, the C003 shuns the cold metal feel that is so common among computer accessories while performing remarkably for what USB flash drives have become so respected for: their compact size, ease of use, and a symbol of personal style.

Features:

Extremely Slim
Store, carry and transfer your photos, music, and various other files with the ultra-slim C003 USB flash drive. You will enjoy the experience the ultra-compact, lightweight C003 USB Flash Drive provides, including a vast range of capacities that range from 4GB to 32GB. It's everything one could need while at home, the office, or on the go.

Retractable Convenience
The retractable connector provides durability and convenience. Just slide out the USB connector and plug it into your computer's USB port; there's no software installation needed either! When you're finished, push the connector back into the unit until you need to use it again. The C003 adds convenience without worrying about losing the cap.

Be Fashionably Tech-savvy
Besides its compact design, the C003 allows even more room for personal creativity and expression. Designed with a strap hole at the end, it easily connects to a lanyard or keychain, making it even more portable - minus the pain of loss or misplacement. Simply put, the C003 serves as more than just a reliable, safe storage device, but also an extension of your taste for fashion.

Smart Power: The Means for Total Protection
Known for being top quality, with their remarkable performance and innovative designs, ADATA portable hard disk drives have more than "hard power" to offer, notably the most valuable software. The OStoGO tool assists you by converting your Microsoft Windows 7 Installation DVD to an ADATA portable storage device, providing you the convenience of being able to quickly install Windows 7 via USB booting without the need for an optical drive. The powerful UFDtoGo tool synchronizes data, e-mails and your Favorites, affording you true mobility.Norton Internet Security 2012 (60-day trial) safeguards your data from viruses and other harmful processes. Registering your ADATA product online gives you this protection for free.
