Overview:

Logitech M185 Wireless Mouse - Grey

A reliable, easy-to-use wireless mouse designed for everyday computing needs. With its plug-and-play setup and long-lasting battery, it offers seamless performance for both work and personal use.

Description:

The Logitech M185 Wireless Mouse provides smooth navigation with a compact design, ideal for laptops and desktops. Its plug-and-forget nano receiver ensures hassle-free connectivity, while the advanced 2.4 GHz wireless technology delivers fast and responsive performance. The mouse is designed to fit comfortably in either hand and supports Windows, Mac, and Linux systems, making it a versatile choice for any user.

Features:

Compact Plug-and-Forget Receiver

The tiny nano receiver plugs into your USB port and stays out of the way. It works across Windows and Mac systems, allowing you to enjoy wireless convenience without worrying about losing the receiver.

Long-Lasting Battery Performance

With up to one year of battery life, this mouse minimizes interruptions. An integrated on/off switch and smart sleep mode help conserve power, letting you focus on your tasks.

Reliable Wireless Connectivity

The Logitech M185 uses advanced 2.4 GHz wireless technology for smooth, reliable tracking. It provides the speed of a wired connection with the freedom of wireless, ensuring minimal delays and no dropouts.

Easy Setup and Use

No software installation is required. Simply plug in the nano receiver and start using your mouse immediately, making setup quick and effortless.

Ergonomic Design for Comfort

Its contoured shape fits comfortably in either hand, providing a more natural feel than a touchpad. Ideal for extended use, the design reduces strain during long computing sessions.

Versatile Compatibility

Perfect for laptops, netbooks, and desktops, the Logitech M185 works with Windows, Mac, and Linux devices. It adapts to your current system and any future upgrades, ensuring consistent performance.
