Overview:

Logitech G335 Wired Gaming Headset - Lightweight Comfort, Crisp Sound, Multi-Platform Support

Game in Comfort with the Logitech G335
Designed with gamers in mind, the Logitech G335 wired gaming headset combines lightweight construction with breathable materials for a comfortable fit that lasts through marathon sessions. Weighing only 240 grams, it's a more compact and lighter version of the G733 LIGHTSPEED headset, yet still delivers impressive performance and style.

The adjustable suspension headband reduces pressure and evenly distributes weight across your head. Paired with soft memory foam ear cups and breathable mesh fabric, the G335 offers a snug fit without discomfort.

Features:

Plug-and-Play Across Your Favorite Devices
Jump straight into the action with simple 3.5 mm audio jack connectivity. The G335 is compatible with Xbox Series X|S, PlayStation 5, Nintendo Switch, PCs, laptops, and most mobile devices. It also includes a PC splitter for separate microphone and headphone jacks, giving you flexible audio options for any setup.

Personalized Fit and Style Options
This headset adapts to you. Adjust the soft elastic headband and slide the earcups for a custom feel that fits just right. When it comes to looks, G335 comes in a variety of colorways with reversible headband straps and matching earpads. Straps are not only reversible but also washable, keeping your gear looking fresh. You can even personalize it further with swappable mic covers.

Color options vary by region. Mint color may not be available in all locations.

Simple, On-Ear Controls
Stay in control without missing a beat. Use the integrated volume roller on the earcup to adjust audio instantly. Need to mute your mic Just flip it up to silence it and stow it out of the way when you're not speaking.

Immersive, Certified Audio Performance
Experience crystal-clear sound with 40 mm neodymium drivers engineered to bring your games to life. The G335 is Discord Certified for excellent voice clarity and communication performance, ensuring you're always heard loud and clear during multiplayer battles or online chats.
