Why Choose the Verbatim Pocket SSD

Ultra-Portable Design
This pocket-sized SSD is lightweight and compact enough to fit comfortably in your back pocket or attach to your keyring. The included keyring attachment ensures you can keep it secured to your belt loop, backpack, or keys, making it easy to carry wherever you go.

Lightning-Fast USB 3.2 Gen 2 Performance
Equipped with the latest USB 3.2 Gen 2 interface, the drive supports data transfer speeds up to 10Gbps. Whether you're transferring large files, editing videos, or loading games, this SSD minimizes wait times and boosts productivity. It's compatible with both PC and Mac systems for versatile use.

Durable and Travel-Ready

Built with a robust fireproof polycarbonate casing, the Verbatim Pocket SSD is designed to withstand the rigors of travel. Without any moving parts, its flash memory storage offers silent operation, lower power consumption, and greater reliability compared to traditional hard drives.

Convenient Cable Management
The SSD comes with a USB-C to USB-C cable stored in a handy cable holder. This thoughtful feature keeps your cable neat, organized, and tangle-free, perfect for users on the move.

Reliable Backup Solution with Nero Software
For Windows users, Nero Backup software is included to safeguard your important files. It lets you schedule automatic backups, ensuring your data is regularly saved without hassle.

Final Thoughts
The Verbatim Pocket SSD USB 3.2 Gen 2 1TB drive is an excellent choice for anyone needing fast, secure, and portable storage. Its combination of speed, durability, and convenient features makes it ideal for everyday use and travel. Keep your data safe, accessible, and ready to go with this compact solid-state drive.

Note: Actual transfer speeds may vary depending on file size, system performance, and operating system.
