Specifications

Overview:

Corsair Raptor LM3 is a right-handed six-button optical gaming mouse with a 2400 DPI optical sensor and on-the-fly DPI switching.

Features:

2400-DPI optical sensor with on-the-fly switching
The high-resolution sensor keeps up with your fast moves and works well with large displays. On-the-fly switching is great for gaming: use higher DPIs in fast-paced situations, and instantly switch when you need accuracy for long-range weapons. The onboard LED indicator lets you keep track of your selected DPI.

Six Buttons
Better gameplay requires faster response. You can map critical game functions to the mouse buttons so you can keep your left hand where it belongs… on the movement keys.

Gaming Ergonomics
LM3 is molded to fit your right hand, and has a soft-touch finish and a rubber thumb grip for comfortable play.
