Microworld Magnetic Neck Phone Holder for Hands-Free Use

ComX Computers

Product Specification Sheet

The Microworld Magnetic Neck Phone Holder from TELESIN is designed for hands-free mobile phone use, perfect for vlogging, selfies, and first-person video recording. Its ergonomic design rests comfortably around your neck, keeping your phone secure while giving you full mobility. The magnetic mount ensures quick attachment and release, making it ideal for smartphones with magnetic rings.

Description

This neck phone holder combines comfort and convenience. Its outer layer is covered with skin-friendly silicone, reducing strain during extended use. Compatible with all smartphones that support magnetic rings, including iPhone 12-17 series and Samsung models, it allows seamless first-person video capture. The magnetic mount keeps your device secure while letting you easily switch between recording and using your phone freely. Perfect for vloggers, content creators, and anyone who needs hands-free phone access.

Features:

Premium Neck Mount Design

Designed to sit comfortably around the neck, this holder supports long-term wear without discomfort. The silicone-covered surface prevents slipping and irritation while keeping your phone stable during activities.

Magnetic Quick-Release System

The strong magnetic connection allows your phone to attach and detach in seconds. This ensures effortless transitions between holding your phone and setting it down, making it ideal for capturing spontaneous moments.

Wide Compatibility with Smartphones

Compatible with all phones featuring a magnetic ring attachment, including iPhone 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17 series and Samsung models. The mount works with most phone cases that support magnetic alignment, offering versatility across devices.

Hands-Free POV and Vlog Recording

Perfect for content creators, this neck phone holder enables first-person point-of-view recording. Whether you are shooting a vlog, taking selfies, or streaming live content, your phone remains securely in place, freeing your hands for natural movement.

Premium Gray Color and Sleek Finish

The stylish premium gray design complements your setup while maintaining a sleek, professional look. Its minimalistic appearance makes it suitable for everyday use, travel, or recording on the go.
