Targus Meridian II Roller 15.6" Notebook case

Product Overview

Targus Meridian II Roller Laptop Case - Fits Laptops with Screen Sizes Up to 15.6' (40cm) - Black

Specifications

Overview:

The Meridian II Roller Case from Targus is designed to fit laptops up to 40cm (15.6") widescreens in a stylish design. Its padded compartment keeps your laptop safe during travel, while the durable nylon materials with signature weather mesh on the bottom of the case provides a stylish design element and shock absorption. The expandable file section keeps your documents organized during travel and offers two additional large accessory pouches. Featured front workstation includes a removable cell phone pocket, pen loops, business card holder, and multiple accessory media storage pockets for added convenience. Additionally, it also includes leather wrapped nylon handles for added comfort. The premium soft twill lining throughout the case prevents valuables from being scratched and adds a quality feel. Embedded 94cm (37") dual trolley handle is designed for equal weight distribution to help prevent strain and to ensure that users don't kick the case while walking.

Features:

Rolling case holds laptop, files and accessories

Designed for busy professionals, the Targus Meridian II Roller Laptop Case combines style with a high level of protection. Featuring a large padded compartment that securely holds laptops up to 15.6 inches (39.62 centimetres), this roller case also offers a waterproof mesh bottom and protective twill lining to keep your valuables safe during travel.

Workstation and media storage pockets

This sleek roller case contains a convenient front workstation that includes a removable mobile phone pocket, pen loops, a business card holder and multiple media storage pockets to hold accessories.

Expandable file section

Ideal for business trips, the case offers an expandable file section to keep your documents organized, as well as two additional large accessory pouches.

Enhanced safety features

To keep your notebook safe during travel, the Meridian II Roller Case features a waterproof mesh bottom that absorbs impact from bumps. In addition, soft twill lining throughout the case protects your valuables from scratches.

Leather-wrapped handles

Leather-wrapped handles ensure you can comfortably carry the case whenever you're not rolling it.

Telescopic handle

The Meridian II's 94-centimetre telescopic trolley handle helps evenly distribute the case's weight, so it stays safely behind you while you're walking.

Nylon construction

The Targus Meridian II Roller Laptop Case is made of nylon and other sturdy materials.
