Overview:

Redragon K733 Cove RGB Wireless Mechanical Numpad

Streamline your workflow with the Redragon K733 Cove, a 22-key mechanical numpad designed for professionals and gamers who demand efficiency and versatility. This compact device combines a built-in calculator display with wired and tri-mode wireless connectivity, offering seamless access to essential functions while keeping your main keyboard setup intact. Its responsive mechanical switches and customizable RGB backlighting make it an ideal choice for data entry, gaming, and productivity tasks.

Description:

The Redragon K733 Cove RGB Wireless Mechanical Numpad delivers a smooth and tactile typing experience with Linear Dragon Chant switches, paired with a built-in calculator display for fast, accurate calculations. Its tri-mode connectivity (wired USB Type-C, 2.4GHz, Bluetooth) allows you to switch between devices effortlessly. The gasket mount design and advanced noise dampening reduce typing noise while improving comfort during extended use. Fully customizable RGB lighting adds style to your workspace, and the included braided USB Type-C cable ensures a reliable wired connection whenever needed.

Features:

Integrated Calculator for Productivity

The K733's built-in calculator display transforms a standard numpad into a powerful productivity tool. Users can quickly switch between PC Mode and Calculator Mode, performing calculations directly on the numpad without interrupting their workflow. Clear, easy-to-read visuals ensure accuracy, making it perfect for accountants, analysts, and professionals who frequently work with numbers.

Smooth Mechanical Typing and Flexible Connectivity

Equipped with Linear Dragon Chant switches, the K733 provides a consistent, quiet keystroke ideal for both work and gaming. Whether you prefer the reliability of a wired connection or the freedom of wireless across multiple devices, this numpad adapts to your environment with USB Type-C and tri-mode connectivity.

Enhanced Comfort and Durable Construction

The gasket mount design of the K733 allows for a softer typing feel and reduces vibration transmission. Combined with noise dampening, it creates a quieter, more comfortable typing experience suitable for shared spaces or late-night use. Its robust build and included braided USB Type-C cable ensure long-lasting performance.

Customizable RGB Lighting for a Personalized Setup

Add a visual flair to your workspace with the K733's customizable RGB backlighting. Choose from a spectrum of colors and dynamic effects to match your setup, mood, or team colors. This combination of practicality and aesthetics makes it a standout peripheral for any modern South African professional or gamer.
